Administrative Staff

I greet you cordially. I am writing to inform you that during this month I received the official document that you sent me, where it states on page 24-50 with the title "Three hundred and sixteenth Omnibus Objection Exhibit A - Claims to be Reclassified" that my claim was rejected, that the proof of claim does not correspond to the goods sold and therefore the claimant is not entitled to an administrative priority.

I am in total disagreement as to the basis of same, as I have stated that my claim is based on the following: During the years 1997-98, 1999 - 2000, 2000 - 2001, during the four-year term of Dr. Victor Fajardo, I started working as a School Counselor. I went from the bachelor's level to the master's level. I was entitled to a salary increase of $374.00 per month more. The salary increase was never honored. That lawsuit was won against the Puerto Rico Department of Education, and during the period (of former Governor Dr. Pedro Roselló) Dr. Víctor Fajardo spent years in jail for embezzlement.

I consider that I am not only entitled to the amount owed to me of 13,464.00 but also the interest due to me for the years that the Government of Puerto Rico owes me for that debt.

I hope to be honored in this regard as soon as possible.

Thank you in advance.

Cordially:

[signature].
